Our Name is Regional

Our Reach is Global

The Southern California Genealogical Society's headquarters are in Burbank, California. Our name may be regional, but our reach and our ability to help you break down your genealogical brick walls extends beyond geographic boundaries.

SCGS serves you no matter where you are. Whether you are a Southern California resident or live thousands of miles away, you can benefit by membership in SCGS. Our resources, services, and benefits extend far beyond Los Angeles County. Our Family Research Library holds over 40,000 volumes with extensive collections of French-Canadian, Cornish, Irish, and German resources. Our shelves contain materials on every state in the nation, and our California collection continues to grow. If you cannot visit in person, our library catalog is searchable online and our Research Teams are available to assist you.

Membership in SCGS is an investment that is loaded with value!

SCGS Members enjoy:

- Free remote access to both MyHeritage Library Edition™, and several proprietary databases.
- 24/7 access to the archive of Jamboree extension webinars which currently includes over 140 recorded webinars and select Jamboree sessions. Our twice-monthly webinars are viewed by genealogists and family historians around the globe. Each hour long webinar is provided to the public for FREE. 60 minutes of instruction, 30 minutes of Q&A, twice a month. That adds up to some 36 hours a year of free education provided by expert genealogy practitioners and speakers. We would love for you to join us.
- Discounts on Research Team services, SCGS products, and Jamboree and Genetic Genealogy Conference registration fees.
