Doors open at 12noon

Lunch - 12:00 noon to 1p.m.

Sit, chat, and share your genealogy stories and questions while eating your brown bag lunch.

“Ships of Our Ancestors”

1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

Millions of our ancestors came to America by sea. This talk overviews Atlantic crossings over the centuries with focus on the mass migration from Eastern Europe around the turn of the last century.

“The Changing Borders of Europe”

2:15 to 3:15 p.m.

As Russia expanded its borders, it absorbed more and more Jews. This talk examines Russia’s efforts to limit the Jews and the borders changes which resulted in towns shifting from one country to another.

Presented by

Hal Bookbinder

Hal Bookbinder has been researching eight family lines for over 30 years, identifying over 4,000 relatives and tracing two of these lines into the mid-1700s. He is a former president of Jewish Genealogical Society, Los Angeles (JGSLA) and the International Association of Jewish Genealogical Societies (IAJGS) and currently serves on the JewishGen Board of Governors. In 2010, Hal received the IAJGS Lifetime Achievement Award for his various contributions to Jewish Genealogy. Mr. Bookbinder was lead co-chair of the 34th IAJGS International Conference on Jewish Genealogy, held in Salt Lake City in July 2014.
