“Searching from Home”

Presented by

Tara Shymanski

Too often we get in a rut of searching a few favorite websites. Learn how to search the abundance of digitized records online available in the USA, Canada, and Britain.

Tara Shymanski, BA, PLCGS, is a genealogy researcher and lecturer. She has researched her family since the age of 17 and now researches professionally. She has lectured virtually and in person at genealogy conferences in United States and Canada

FREE. This will be online only. Open to the public. The library will not be open. Any questions please contact Charlotte rubymoon01@yahoo.com
