Exhibitors are responsible for collecting and paying all California Sales Tax which is due and payable to the State of California from the sale of goods at the Genealogy Jamboree 2012. You may not sell any items at the Genealogy Jamboree 2012 without a valid California Seller's Permit. An application form can be obtained from the Board of Equalization. The tax rate for the Burbank area is 9.75%, and payment is due to the State within 10 days of the end of the event.

In addition, the City of Burbank has instituted a local fee assessed on vendors selling merchandise at shows such as Jamboree. This applies only to vendors who are selling merchandise from their tables. The fee, $12 per day, will be picked up in person. City of Burbank forms will be included in vendor packets.

Please provide information on your booth staff for name tags
