

which closes on May 31, the club has furnished day.

presidents will be presented at the reception on Monday, May 1, at the Glendale Civic Center Auditorium, 1401 N. Verdugo Rd., in Glendale. There is plenty of free parking and it is on the RTD route. Donation $1.00.

Featured is a beginner's seminar conducted throughout the afternoon and five outstanding lectures will be offered.

These are "Introduction to Heraldry," 1 p.m.; Donald W. Ranklin, director and past president of SCGS, Director of the Heritage Library, and 15 years in the field of heraldic research; "Proper Use of Genealogical Libraries," 1:45 p.m., Barbara D. McKinlay, author of articles on genealogy and teacher of genealogy; 1:45 p.m.; "Federal Records," 2:30 p.m. James Byers, archivist of the Federal Records Center, Laguna Niguel; "LDS Library Holdings," 3:15 p.m. Marjorie Mahon, supervisor of patron services at the Los Angeles Temple Library; "The Family Newsletter," 4 p.m. Donald N. Moran, Editor of the SCGS "Searcher".

Additionally, Berni K. Campbell, President, SCGS, reports, there are 21 displays featuring various aspects of genealogical research these include displays of genealogical records from specific geographical areas, such as, in the United States — New England, Mid-Atlantic, Midwest, and Southern States.

Trace family tree by leaves, branches, roots

Members of the Tuesday Morning group of TOPS CA 1291, Eagle Rock, which meets at the recreation center at 1100 Eagle Vista Dr., attended Area Recognition Day at Oxnard, April 22-23.

TOPS feted at Oxnard convention

Those attending were: Ruth Johnson, leader; Cecile Singletary, co-