What grows on a family tree?

For those interested in tracing their family tree, the Southern California Genealogical Society will present a question and answer program at their June meeting moderated by Richard E. Coe, reports Mrs. Marge C. Fahy, president.

The meeting will be held Friday evening, June 14 at 7:30 p.m., at 5670 Wilshire Blvd., third floor auditorium of the Cal-Fed Building.

Coe is editor of the Society's quarterly publication, "The Searcher." He is a professional genealogist and active member of Sons of the Revolution (is State genealogist and secretary), the Mayflower Society, the Society of Colonial Wars, Connecticut Society of Genealogists, New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, New England Historic Genealogical Society, and is a Fellow of the American Society of Heraldry.

Southern California Genealogical Society was founded in 1964 with headquarters and Reference Library at 835 Locust Ave., Long Beach. Monthly meetings are held the second Friday of the month at
