

gained and stored the book plates, just in case another run is called for.

Jenkins to Discuss Genealogical Research for Black Families

George B. Jenkins will discuss techniques of genealogical research for black families at a meeting of the Southern California Genealogical Society at 7:30 p.m. today at California Federal Savings and Loan, 5670 Wilshire Blvd.

Jenkins retired in 1977 as associate professor emeritus in the social services department at California Polytechnic State University, Pomona, and has returned to the university to teach courses in beginning genealogy focusing on minorities.

scgs meeting, 1980 george jenkins
"research for black families"

Clipped By:
JewelsGirl
Feb 29, 2024