Genealogical group moves library to Wilmington

The Southern California Genealogical Society has moved its headquarters and reference library from Long Beach to the historic Banning Mansion and Museum in Wilmington.

The refurbished mansion is located in Banning Park, 401 E. M St.

In charge of the library is Mrs. Marge C. Fahy.

The genealogical society was founded in 1964 by a group interested in furthering the study of tracing family histories. Monthly meetings are held the second Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Los Angeles. A class for beginners interested in finding out their family history is conducted the second Saturday of each month at the library.

Regular library hours are Tuesday through Thursday, noon to 4 p.m. and Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The new headquarters will open Feb. 1 from 1 to 5 p.m.
