Lunch - eat before or during the online lecture.

Learn - 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. with questions and answers

Speaker - Karen A. Fortin

1:00 - 2:00 p.m. "Orphan Trains and the Children Who Rode Them"

The story of the Orphan Trains, which relocated children from the eastern cities to rural farmlands, has become a part of American popular culture. This presentation explores the facts behind the legends, follows a group of children "placed-out" in 1880, and provides information on resources available to learn more about the orphan trains and their riders.

Karen A. Fortin has degrees in History and Library Science and a passion for research. She is a member of various genealogical societies and loves to help people explore their family's history and the world in which they lived.
