Saturday, October 8, 2022

Lunch - eat before or during the online lectures.

Learn - 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. with questions and answers

THIS LECTURE IS ONLINE ONLY

1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

PART ONE: "SORRY, DAD, YOU WERE... "OH SO WRONG"!

In 1977, I received a letter from my dad sharing what he knew about his ancestral family. He added that all information was confirmed by relatives.

and "INDEXING MYSTERIES & FRUSTRATIONS"

Ancestry.com and Familysearch.org indexing errors can drive us crazy. And you will see why in this lecture.

2:10 to 3:10 p.m.

PART TWO: "WHO'S HIDING IN THE WINGS?"

Quite often, Collateral Research is used to connect families. Other times we use it out of curiosity, which I did, and discovered at the end of their wings, two very interesting gentlemen. One you will meet in this lecture.

Presented by

Allene Collins-Aubertin

Allene Collins-Aubertin is a professional genealogist doing genealogy research since the late 1970's when she became interested in her mother's German genealogy. Allene continues researching her own family as well as those of her friends and a few folks she meets along the way. Allene is the facilitator for the SCGS's German Interest Group.
