“Save the Stories: Oral History Interviewing Tips”

By Jane Neff Rollins

This talk will cover: whom to interview and how to approach them; getting past the fear and embracing your inner journalist; what questions to ask; technology for recording and transcribing; and sharing the stories so they don't get forgotten.

Jane Neff Rollins is a professional genealogist who translates Russian records into English at Sherlock Combs Genealogy®. Jane has lectured at conferences sponsored by IAJGS, National Genealogical Society, and Federation of Genealogical Societies, among others. Her genealogical writing has appeared in Avotaynu, FGS Forum, NGS Magazine, Pennsylvania Legacies, and Crossroads.
